Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I Hamburg Moll 2 Off. of the Arcadia do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear, that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers from Hamburg in number named on the foregoing List or Manifest, and that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that, from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said list or manifest, concerning each of said passengers named therein, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I Moll, 2 Off. of the Arcadia do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear, that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers from Hamburg in number named on the foregoing List or Manifest, and that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that, from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome ore dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contact or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said list or manifest, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Sworn before me this 14 day of May, 1903. Moll

Deputy Consul of the United States at Hamburg

Sworn to before me this May 15th 1903 F.B. Lancaster Inspector

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I Moll 2 Off. of the Arcadia do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear, that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers from Hamburg in number named on the foregoing List or Manifest, and that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that, from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said list or manifest, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, John Ritchard, Master of the S.S. "Etruria", from Liverpool via Queenstown, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, one in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

John Ritchard
Commanding Officer.

Sworn to before me this tenth day of May, 1903

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Pritchard, Master of the ETRURIA, from LIVERPOOL, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear That I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 5 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR PURSER OF THE SAID OFFICER.

I, John Pritchard, Master of the R.M.S. ETRURIA, do solemnly swear that the within and foregoing is a full, true and complete manifest of all the passengers taken on board the said vessel at the port of LIVERPOOL, its departure therefrom for the port of New York, including the names of those who have died on the voyage, and the number and causes of such deaths; that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel, before the departure of said vessel from LIVERPOOL, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that I have caused the report of said surgeon, I believe to be true and correct, to be entered in the surgeon's list; that I have not, nor has any person by my direction or to my knowledge or belief, by any indirect means whatsoever, given, offered or promised any inducement, persuasion, or suggestion to any alien to induce him to come to the United States, except such as are contained in the letters, telegrams or papers, if any, produced by him; that I have not, nor has any person by my direction or to my knowledge or belief, entered into any contract, agreement, express or implied, to prepay the passage to the United States, except such as are contained in the letters, telegrams or papers, if any, produced by him; that I have not, nor has any person by my direction or to my knowledge or belief, paid or agreed to pay any money to any person for the purpose of inducing him to emigrate to the United States, except such as are stated in the said list; that I have not, nor has any person by my direction or to my knowledge or belief, taken any steps to prevent the inspection of the said passengers by the proper officers of the United States, at the port of departure, or elsewhere, or by any means, device, or contrivance whatsoever, concealed from view any of said passengers who, I believe, would be excluded from admission into the United States under the contract labor law, or who, I believe, are not entitled under the said law to admission into the United States; that the said vessel has not touched at any port or place whatsoever, and has not received on board any passengers, goods, or merchandise whatsoever, from any vessel, boat, or other means of conveyance whatsoever, after the departure of said vessel from LIVERPOOL, and before the departure of said vessel for the port of New York, except as follows: [illegible]; and that the foregoing manifest, including the list of my passengers and their ages, sexes, and nationalities, is in all respects true and correct.

Scrutinized on board at NEW YORK this 16th day of May 1903. J. H. Morgan Inspector

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER.

I, John Hutchinson, Master of the R.M.S. ETRURIA from QUEENSTOWN, do solemnly, truly swear that I have made a personal examination of the passengers named in the list of Manifest Sheet numbered one to [illegible] inclusive, and that I am the Master (or Commanding Officer) of the said vessel, sailing therewith to the port of New York, and that to the best of my knowledge and belief the information in said List or Manifest concerning each of said passengers is true in relation thereto; that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a person who has been insane within one year previous to the time of embarkation at the last port from which said vessel sails previous to the sailing of said vessel for the United States, or who has been confined in any prison or other institution or asylum at public expense, or who is a pauper or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, except as may be stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers has been induced or solicited to migrate to this country by any offer, promise, agreement, contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except as may be stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers is a person whose ticket or passage money has been paid for by any other person or company, except as may be stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers has been assisted by any other person or company in coming to the United States, except as may be stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been deported as an assisted emigrant by any foreign government, or by the authorities of any municipality or city thereof, except as may be stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been convicted of, or who admits the commission of, a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, except as may be stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers is a person whose passage is being paid for with the money of another, or who is coming to the United States at the solicitation of another, unless the facts are fully stated in said List or Manifest; that no one of said passengers is a polygamist, or in any way connected with the practice of polygamy; that no one of said passengers is an anarchist; that no one of said passengers is coming in pursuance of an offer, promise or agreement to perform labor in the United States; that no one of said passengers is a person who believes in or is affiliated with any organization that entertains a belief in the overthrow by force or violence of the government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been refused admission to the United States within the past year, or who has been returned within the past year after having been admitted, or who came in consequence of the refusal of admission to the last preceding arrival of the vessel in which he came; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has violated the conditions of his return certificate; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has failed to procure the certificate required by law of a person entitled to return to the United States; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than one year without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than two years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than three years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than four years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than five years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than six years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than seven years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than eight years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than nine years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law; that no one of said passengers is a person who has been in the United States and has remained therein for a longer period than ten years without having procured a certificate of identification, if such certificate was required by law.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert James Haddock, master * of the Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 27 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, H. J. Haddock, of the Teutonic, from Queenstown, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 28 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert James Haddock, Master* of the T.S. Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 25 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert James Haddock, Master* of the S.S. Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 30 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert James Haddrell, master of the S.S. Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 30 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named therein, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

Robert James Mastic, Master of the S.S. Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named in the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 29 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert James Haddock, the Master of the S.S. Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 28 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert James Cadwallader Haslett, of the S.S. Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, — in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers; and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this ~~eighth~~ day of May, 190 3 — Master ~~Surgeon~~.

* "Race or People" is to be determined by the stock from which they spring and the language they speak. List of races will be found on back of this sheet.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Herbert Henry Haddock, Master of the S S Cedric, from Liverpool, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 28 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Master

Sworn to before me this Eighth day of May 1903

Consul of the United States at Liverpool

* State whether Master, First or Second Officer.

Affidavit of Surgeon.

I, Robert Douglas Dobie, Surgeon of the S S Cedric, sailing therewith, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have had Nine years' experience as a Physician and Surgeon and that I am entitled to practice as such by and under the authority of The Royal College of Surgeons England, and that I have made a personal examination of each of the passengers named herein, and that the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 28 in number, are, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, full, correct, and true in all particulars, relative to the mental and physical condition of such passengers.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, J. Faulsen, master,* of the S.S. CHEMNITZ, from Bremen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 50 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this fifth day of May, 1903

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, F. Jaeger, master,* of the S.S. CHEMNITZ, from Bremen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 29 in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, J. Paulsen, master,* of the S. CHEMNITZ, from Bremen, do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, [illegible] in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this fifth day of May, 1903 [illegible] Officer.

[illegible] Consul of the United States at Bremen

* State whether Master, First or Second Officer.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, F. Spangenberg, master, * of the S.S. CHEMNITZ, from Bremen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named therein, is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this 4th day of May, 1905.

E. Bieler
Consul of the United States at Bremen.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, J. Faulgen, master * of the S.S. CHEMNITZ from Bremen do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, [illegible] in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

J. Faulgen
Officer.

Sworn to before me this fifth day of May 1903

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Guimont Jay, 2nd Officer of the S.S. La Champagne, from Havre, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Guimont 2nd Officer.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Hugh Young, master, * of the S.S. Furnessia, from Glasgow, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare, that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, [blank] in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Master Otto Nielsen, of the S.S. Duca d'Galliera, from Genoa, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, Three in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Jep Nielsen Mask, * of the "F. W. Kelly Clar" from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, Three Lists in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

J. N. Mask
Master Officer.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, J. Holst, Master * of the S/S Ellig Olsen, from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, ... in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, J. Holst, Master, * of the D/S Kellig Olav, from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, thirty in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

J. Holst
Master Officer.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, J Holst, Master, of the S/S Kong Olav, from Christiansand, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, thirty in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

J Holst

Master Officer.

Sworn to before me this Seventh day of May, 1903.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, P. Pedersen Kapt. of the D/S "Kong Dan", from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

P. Pedersen
Master Officer.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, F. P. Holst, Master, * of the S. S. "Kelly Clar" , from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

F. P. Holst

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, A. P. Holst, Master * of the S. S. Helig Olav, from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

A. P. Holst.
Master Officer.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, A. Holst, Master * of the S.S. Kelley Clay, from Copenhagen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, in number, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon, is correct and true.

A. Holst.
Master Officer.

Sworn to before me this 6th day of May, 1903

Raymond R. Frazier
